RACE 1

Going: Good

The Yarmouth round course is a narrow, left-handed, oval track, about thirteen furlongs in extent, with a run-in of five furlongs. There is a straight mile course. Apart from a slight fall just before the run-in, the track is perfectly flat, with sharpish bends, and prominent racers are favoured on the round course at distances up to a mile and a quarter. The track was shut for the majority of 2015 to allow the surface to be relaid.

Michael Bell has his string in good nick and his low-mileage 4-y-o THE UBERMENSCH looks the way to go having not been seen to best effect when second at Wolverhampton recently. Kamaway is next on the list, while Merapi and No Knee Never also need factoring into this open handicap.

1 3 9-11 | 62.1kg

Simon & Ed Crisford

James Doyle

40,000 gns Sea The Stars colt found plenty when making a winning start in a 1m Southwell novice in January (narrowly denied now-useful runner-up), and though conceding weight to the field here, he's very much the type to improve for middle distances.

2 3 DEL MARO (GER) (182) 100
2323- 3 9-4 | 59.0kg

Charlie Appleby

William Buick

Bred to be smart over middle distances and very much heading in the right direction when third in Group 3 Zetland at Newmarket in October, seemingly relishing step up to 1¼m. Similar performance should be enough to take this, though there could be even better to come from this Epsom Derby entrant.

3 1 FLORENTINE LAW (IRE) 81
3 9-4 | 59.0kg

Michael Bell

Hector Crouch

170,000 gns yearling, Study of Man colt. Half-brother to 3 winners, including smart winner up to 12.4f Marquisat and useful 1¼m-1½m winner Luisa Casati. Makes plenty of pedigree appeal and is one to note in the betting.

4 4 POINT OF LAW 81
3 9-4 | 59.0kg

John & Thady Gosden

Robert Havlin

Frankel colt. Dam, 1¼m winner who stayed 1½m, half-sister to useful 1¼m-12.4f winner Warrant Holder (by Frankel) out of smart winner up to 10.4f (2-y-o 7f winner) Diploma. Newcomer from top yard merits respect, especially if supported.

5 2 SINTRA (25) 81
32 3 9-4 | 59.0kg

Andrew Balding

C. T. Keane

Kingman colt. Half-brother to smart winner up to 1¼m Windlord. Backed up promising debut effort when chasing home useful prospect at Wolverhampton (8.5f) and has the potential to do better over a longer trip on turf debut.

BETTING FORECAST:

5-4 Del Maro, 9-2 Sintra, 11-2 Point of Law, 6-1 Knowledge, 8-1 Florentine Law

TIMEFORM VIEW:

Charlie Appleby won this race with a useful sort 12 months ago and is fancied to repeat the feat with Group 1 entered DEL MARO. Sintra probably bumped into one on the all-weather last time, and with improvement expected, may give the selection most to think about.

James Tate Hector Crouch
€550,000 yearling, Sea The Stars filly. Dam 11.6f/1½m winner who stayed 1¾m. Well backed when making a winning debut in novice at Southwell on New Year's Day. That form looks ordinary but there's more to come from this well-bred filly up in trip.

2 7 OTTOMAN EMPRESS (172) (C) 90

Charlie Appleby William Buick
550,000 gns Zarak filly who confirmed debut promise when landing the odds here (1m) in October, still green but scoring decisively. More to come.

6 6 HARRIET QUIMBY (IRE) (172) (BF) 100

Simon & Ed Crisford Harry Davies
Pinatubo filly who stepped up on debut when second in 1m novice at Newcastle in October, beaten only by a useful prospect. Step up in trip likely to suit and sets the standard.

Nathaniel filly. Half-sister to 6f winner Vi Et Armis. Offered something to work on when fifth of 13 in maiden (28/1) at Kempton (1m) on debut 87 days ago. Step up in trip will suit but this looks a hot novice.

21-3 5 9-10 | 61.7kg

James Owen Mason Paetel (51b/2kg)
Switched to the Flat since winning a turf bumper in September, building on Southwell second when going one better at Wolverhampton (1½m) in December. Respectable third in 11f Kempton novice in January. Interesting handicap newcomer for leading stable.

2 13 SHIHOKU (FR) (38) h+t ★ 100
895826-47 5 9-9 | 61.2kg

James Owen Christian Howarth (31b/1kg)
A few of this winter's all-weather efforts suggest he's capable of winning off this sort of mark. First turf start since joining James Owen. Might be worth chancing.

7/435-1 4 9-7 | 60.3kg

Hayley Burton Jack Callan (51b/2kg)
0-4 for Roger Varian but made a successful start for Hayley Burton in 1½m Lingfield handicap under Jack Callan 17 days ago. This well-bred sort has the potential to build on that now back on the grass.

27/351130- 4 9-7 | 60.3kg

Hugo Palmer Oisin Murphy
Two wins over this trip last year, including under Oisin Murphy, whose presence in the saddle again suggests this filly should be ready to roll after 8 months off.

414/24587- 8 9-2 | 58.1kg

Marco Botti David Egan

82711140- 8 9-0 | 57.2kg

Martin Dunne Alice Bond (71b/3kg)

31268663- 5 8-11 | 55.8kg

Michael Keady Sean Dylan Bowen
All Flat wins on all-weather but landed a maiden hurdle on the grass last summer. Off since a disappointing run over hurdles at Fakenham in October. Others are more obvious.

GBI RACINGGoing: Good

The Yarmouth round course is a narrow, left-handed, oval track, about thirteen furlongs in extent, with a run-in of five furlongs. There is a straight mile course. Apart from a slight fall just before the run-in, the track is perfectly flat, with sharpish bends, and prominent racers are favoured on the round course at distances up to a mile and a quarter. The track was shut for the majority of 2015 to allow the surface to be relaid.
