IRISH STALLION FARMS EBF FILLIES MAIDEN 2yo fillies
€22,000 1m73y (1680 Metres)

Going: Heavy

Galway is a right-handed track with a circuit of just over a mile and a quarter. There is a steep incline to the finish, but unless the ground is particularly testing the track is essentially sharp in character. The finishing straight is short at little more than a furlong. A low draw at 7f and 1m 100yds is a slight advantage.

1	6	DUQUESNE BAY (IRE) (17) 8 2 9-2 58.1kg  J. Kearney Showed a bit in mid-field in 1m Naas maiden on debut 17 days ago, though is likely to be one for further down the line.	55
2	2	HANDSOFFSHESMINE (IRE) (8) 68 2 9-2 58.1kg  C. D. Hayes Well held in maidens (behind stablemate Itstheonlyoneigot at Gowran last week) and looks one for handicaps.	78
3	4	ITSTHEONLYONEIGOT (8) 3 2 9-2 58.1kg  Andrew Joseph Slattery Made an encouraging debut considering the amount of ground she conceded at the start when third of 15 in maiden at Gowran last week, staying on under hands-and-heels ride. Looks sure to improve.	86
4	8	LAN DE GHAIRE (IRE) (156) 339 2 9-2 58.1kg  L. T. McAteer Had 3 quick runs in maidens in May, showing fair form and not beaten far first 2 starts. Tailed off at the Curragh when last seen though and needs to get back on track upped to 1m now.	89
5	5	LOOKING FOR LOVE (IRE) 2 9-2 58.1kg  Seamie Heffernan Foaled March 24. New Bay filly. Dam, 1¼m-1½m winner (both her starts), half-sister to high-class 1m-11.5f winner Echo of Light and smart 9f-1½m winner (stayed 2m) Akarem. Appealing sort on paper and yard had just second juvenile winner on debut this year at Dundalk on Friday. One to note.
6	7	PETTICOAT BAY (USA) (23) 3 2 9-2 58.1kg  Jack Cleary (5lb/2kg) Bred to be smart and shaped well without being knocked about when third of 7 in Curragh maiden on debut 3 weeks ago. Will improve.	87
7	9	SAN JUAN DE LOPE (IRE) 2 9-2 58.1kg  D. W. O'Connor Foaled March 9. €280,000 yearling, Lope de Vega filly. Half-sister to winner up to 9f De Sica. Dam winner up to 1m (2-y-o 6f winner). Stable in form, including with newcomers, and she's appealing first time up.
8	3	UNREAL FRIEND (IRE) (10) 38 2 9-2 58.1kg  G. F. Carroll Has offered something to work on in a couple of similar events in the last month and should make more impact in handicaps.	83
9	1	WUNDERSCHON (GER) (10) 7344 2 9-2 58.1kg  N. M. Crosse Has made a good start for all she's yet to win, keeping on for fourth in good 1m Punchestown maiden before chasing home top prospect Wall Street in Group 3 at Leopardstown 10 days ago. Looks the one to beat.	100

TIMEFORM VIEW:

A chance is taken on EARLS who has dropped to 8lb lower than when third in a stronger race here at the summer festival. Jp's Express is respected on the back of his good third in a big field at the Curragh recently. San Aer's fine Galway record, including 2 wins in this race, earns him a place on the shortlist along with Johnny Murtagh's Flash of Fire.

Improved for the step up in trip/switch to more positive tactics (set a sound gallop) when 1½ lengths third of 13 on nursery debut at Naas (1m, good to soft) last month. Not in quite the same form back in a maiden since but given another chance to show she can win off this mark. Hooded first time.

WECOULDAVEHADITALL is given another chance to confirm the improvement she showed when third on her 1m Naas nursery debut last month. Gabby Hayes may have simply failed to handle all-weather last time and will be a threat if back to the level of his nursery debut third at the Curragh. BETTING FORECAST:

11-4 Saliba, 10-3 Spacebound, 5-1 Tide of Fortune, 11-2 Subtle Shade, 11-1 Spectical, 16-1 Abiding Memory, 28-1 Shorten The Winter, 28-1 Danpaddyandy, 100-1 bar

TIMEFORM VIEW:

SPACEBOUND wasn't seen to best effect when fourth at the Curragh last time and he can build on that recent effort to open his account. The main danger could be Saliba, who wasted no time getting back on track when runner-up at Roscommon, while Subtle Shade appeals as an interesting newcomer for Joseph O'Brien.

BARNA RECYCLING HANDICAP 3yo+ (Rated 0-60)
€10,000 7f (1410 Metres)

Going: Heavy

Galway is a right-handed track with a circuit of just over a mile and a quarter. There is a steep incline to the finish, but unless the ground is particularly testing the track is essentially sharp in character. The finishing straight is short at little more than a furlong. A low draw at 7f and 1m 100yds is a slight advantage.
